Lesson 24

THE CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE

Aim: To present clearly God's design for marriage.

Introduction:

Marriage is the oldest human institution. It is older than the church and the government. John Stott gave a Biblical definition of marriage. "Marriage is an heterosexual covenant between one man and one woman, ordained and sealed by God preceded by a public leaving of parents, consummated in in sexual union, issuing in a permanent mutually supportive partnership and normally crowned by the gift of children."

"A successful marriage required falling in love many times, always with the same person" -Mignon Mc Laughlin

I. REASON FOR MARRIAGE

A. To obey the command of God.

Gen.1:28

B. for Fellowship

Gen. 2:18

C. For Partnership

Ecclesiastes 4:9-11

D. For the propagation of the human race.

Genesis 1:28, 9:1

II. THE BIBLICAL BASIS OF MARRIAGE IN MARK 10:6-9

1. Marriage is to be Monogamous

one man, one woman relationship under God

2. Marriage is to be Heterosexual

the divine pattern indicates a male and a female relationships-Mignon Mc Laughlin

3. Marriage involves a distinct union. The two shall be one place.

4. Marriage is permanent. What therefore God has joined together, Let no man put a sunder.

Conclusion:

Marriage is sacred because it is of divine planning. It originated in the greatest Mind- God's. Contracting parties of the said union should therefore be faithful To the vows they have made before God and before men.
